BLOOMINGTON YACHT CLUB, INCORPORATED BYLAWS April 14, 2012

Preamble.

Although incorporated as a general business corporation in 1979, the Bloomington Yacht Club, Inc. has operated for many years and continues to operate as a not-for-profit organization for the purpose of providing exclusively for its members a variety of social, educational and recreational opportunities related to sailing. As such, the organization provides sailing facilities, including, boat storage, docks, and a clubhouse, as well as various sailing programs, including instruction, racing, and pleasure cruising on Lake Lemon. The cost of these benefits is funded by members' dues, fees assessments and an initial purchase of shares. All members of the Club become shareholders of the corporation but derive no financial benefit from their shares. Upon admission, member units purchase two shares, the price of which is refunded upon termination of membership and surrender of the shares. For federal tax purposes, the Club therefore operates and intends to operate as a 501(c)(7) organization, compliant with the Internal Revenue Code. The Club provides no dividends to shareholders nor should shareholders expect to benefit financially from the liquidation of assets.

Article I: Identification

Section 1. Name.

This organization shall be known as the Bloomington Yacht Club, Incorporated.

Section 2. Pennant.

The pennant of the Club shall be triangular twenty inches long, ten inches high, and consist of a red letter B on a white disc, five inches in diameter, superimposed on the royal blue field of the pennant.

Article II: Purpose

Section 1. Purpose.

The purpose of this Club shall be to promote an interest in sailing, sailing competition, and in fellowship among members.

Article III: Membership

Section 1. Membership.

A. A membership unit shall consist of no more than two adults. Children shall be considered a part of the membership unit as long as the child has not yet reached his or her 23rd birthday by January 1st of the calendar year. Membership shall be limited to 40 units. Members who have been members in good standing for five (5) or more years and are retired from sailing are not included in the 40 unit limit, although such members do pay dues and vote.

- B. Life Membership: Life Membership shall be used to recognize an active member who has been of exceptional value to the Club. It continues for the life of the member. Nominations are made in writing and require a two-thirds vote of the Board. Life members are entitled to all Club privileges but do not pay dues.
- C. Honorary Member: Nominations shall be made to a Club officer and confirmed by a majority vote of the Board. Honorary members have a standing invitation to visit the Club as guests. They are not extended the opportunity to hold shares of stock. Honorary members are entitled to all Club privileges but do not have voting privileges and do not pay dues.

Section 2. Admission to membership

- A. Any member may propose the name of a prospective member at any Club Meeting.
- B. If a prospective member is unknown to any Club member he or she may request the Membership Officer to propose his or her name to the Club.
- C. Upon submitting a completed application form and a $100.00 application fee (refundable), the applicant will meet with two Board members and his/her sponsor to discuss mutual expectations of his/her membership and answer any questions the applicant may have. After a satisfactory interview, the application will be forwarded to the Secretary for publication, etc.
  - 1. The secretary will publish the application to the entire membership, either at a regular Club meeting or via e-mail.
  - 2. Unless 25% or more of the membership share votes are filed as objections with the secretary within twenty days, the Board of Governors will extend an invitation to the proposed member.

Section 3. Privileges and Responsibilities of membership.

- A. Stock Purchase and Ownership. The Bloomington Yacht Club has the authority to issue up to one-thousand (1,000) shares of stock. Each membership unit must own two shares of stock in the Bloomington Yacht Club, Incorporated, at the cost of $50 per share. No membership unit may own more than two shares.
  - 1. Members must purchase their two (2) shares immediately upon the acceptance of their membership application.
  - 2. Members may not sell their shares elsewhere, nor shall they attempt to gain financially from the sale of their shares.
- B. Voting Privileges. Voting privileges will be extended to active, dues paying members. Each membership unit shall have one vote per share.
- C. Use of Club Facilities. All members shall be entitled to use the Clubhouse and grounds, the docks, and the equipment of the Club, excluding the committee boat, subject always to such restrictions as may be placed upon this use by the Board of Governors.

- 1. Members may store their boats and equipment at the BYC facility in the space assigned by the Rear Commodore.
- 2. Any boats stored on the BYC facility must be in sea worthy condition.
- D. Club Events. All members shall be eligible to participate in the social, sailing, and racing events sponsored by the Club.
- E. Responsibilities. On becoming members, individuals agree to abide by the Club Bylaws. They are expected to participate in the maintenance of the Club facilities, must serve on committees, and must use the facilities properly.

Section 4. Identification Cards.

The Club shall issue appropriate membership cards each year. These cards shall be signed by the Commodore and issued by the Treasurer.

Section 5. Termination of Membership

Membership in the Club may be terminated by resignation or expulsion.

- A. Resignation. Tenders of resignation may be accepted by the Club only if the resigning member has fulfilled his/her financial obligations to the Club. All keys must be returned and personal property removed from the BYC property before reimbursement of shares. The Club shall buy back stock at the price stated in Section 3 above.
- B. Expulsion. A two-thirds majority vote of the Board of Governors shall be required to expel a member for violation of his/her privileges and /or responsibilities, including non-payment of dues on schedule.
- C. Termination shall be effective on the date of the tendered resignation, or the date of expulsion. Within one year of the effective termination date, and provided that all financial obligations and other membership responsibilities have been settled, and upon surrender of the stock certificates, the Club will purchase back the two shares of stock previously purchased by the terminated member. If the shares are not redeemed within this one year period, ownership of the shares shall automatically revert back to the Club and shall be voided.
- D. There shall be a $25 per share fee for replacement of lost shares.

Section 6. Recognition of Members of other Yacht Clubs

- A. The Bloomington Yacht Club will recognize and grant temporary privileges to members of recognized yacht clubs who can identify themselves by presenting evidence of their membership in such club.
- B. Members of yacht clubs who request temporary privileges may store their boats on BYC property for a period of one week without charge; subsequent storage will be assessed at a rate fixed by the Board of Governors.

C. Temporary membership privileges may be extended for a maximum of thirty days unless additional time is granted by the Board of Governors.
